

FAWE Rwanda Chapter

TERMS OF REFERENCE AND SPECIFICATIONS FOR LOTS ABOVE

The Forum for African Women Educationalists (FAWE) is a membership-based Pan-African Non-Governmental Organization that operates through 34 National Chapters in 34 countries in Sub-Saharan Africa to promote girls' and women's education. FAWE was founded in 1992 and has its head office in Nairobi – Kenya. FAWE's vision, mission and goal focus on quality education for girls and women. FAWE Rwanda is one of 34 National chapters. FAWE Rwanda Chapter was started in 1997 by a group of Rwandan women whose common goal was to build the country and promote national development through girls' and women's education. Since its inception, FAWE Rwanda has grown to become a reputable partner and focal point on female education in Rwanda.
