I. Description of DUHAMIC-ADRI

DUHAMIC-ADRI is a Non-Governmental Organization legally granted by Rwandan law. The idea of its establishment dates back to 1979 with the objective of helping rural low income populations to organize themselves to fight against the constraints of the marginalization of rural areas. The action has overtime moved from local and regional to national level with the holding of the Constituent General Assembly of April 20, 1985 who devoted DUHAMIC-ADRI as an NGO working throughout Rwanda. DUHAMIC-ADRI was legally recognized by the Ministerial Order No. 943 of July 12, 1985. Its statutes were amended and accepted by the Ministerial Order No. 025/11 of 21th March 2005.

With the vision to have “A rural world responsible for its self-socio-economic development”, DUHAMIC-ADRI has a mission of “Supporting integrated development through the initiatives of the rural population in their struggle for self-development”.
