Tender Notice – Interpretation and Translation Services

The University of Global Health Equity (UGHE) is an internationally recognized institution based in Rwanda, committed to advancing global health education and strengthening equitable health systems through excellence in teaching, research, and strategic partnerships. UGHE's mission focuses on training future leaders in healthcare delivery, particularly in resource-constrained settings.

UGHE seeks to engage a qualified professional interpretation and translation company under a framework contract. The services will support, among other activities, plenary sessions, technical workshops, group discussions, and field visits, all of which require seamless multilingual communication.

UGHE invites qualified and experienced consultancy firms to submit proposals for the d interpretation and translation services through UGHE Procurement system <https://ughe.app/eprocurement/index.php> Tender Notice #05529/26

All bids must be submitted electronically through the UGHE Procurement System no later than 23:59 Kigali time on 15th Sept 2026.

Sincerely,

Shivon Byamukama

Deputy Vice Chancellor for Administrative and Financial Affairs
University of Global Health Equity
